Our visit to Hilltop farm is a highlight of this tour but lovers of Beatrix Potter know that her world extended throughout the Lake District, from Sawrey, Hawkshead, Tarn Hows and Yewdale in the south to Derwentwater in the north and to the head of the Troutbeck Valley in the east. Likewise William Wordsworth traveled extensively throughout the Lake District and this tour is especially designed to visit particular places that can be associated with the areas two most famous literary figures. All will be explained to you by your driver-guide during this wonderful 14 lakes and tarns tour with lake cruise, stops for photographs and short walks.

Tour Includes

This tour includes a round lake cruise on Coniston Water, pub lunch, admission to Hilltop Farm and Dove Cottage. [Please note: Hilltop is closed on Thursday and Friday; however, the gardens and shop are open at no extra charge.]
